HENRY GEORGE JR. IN LONDON

Prionds Here Say He Will Try for Congressional Renomination.

Friends of Congressman Henry George jr. received word to-day through Secretary of State Bryan that the Congressman, his wife and three children had arrived in London from Germany after severe hardships. Mr. George was ill at Wiesbaden when the war broke out and, it is be-lieved, had much difficulty in getting out of the country. Although Mr. out of the country. Although Mr. George has been a consistent supporter of all of President Wilson's policies at Washington and is there-fore out of touch with some of the New York Democratic leaders, his New York Democratic leaders, his friends say he will nevertheless make the primary fight for renomination in he Twenty-first Congress District and they are to-day circulating his nominating petitions.

BOMBS ARE DROPPED AT NIGHT IN BELFORT, BUT DO LITTLE DAMAGE

BELFORT, France, Sept. 3 (via Paris, Sept. 2, delayed) .- A German aeroplane last night dropped several aeroplane last night dropped several shells here. The missiles made much noise, but did no damage. The aviator, to avoid the fire of the Beifort forts, made a detour over Swiss territory, it is charged; also he is said to have come from the south instead of coming directly from Alsace, and it is declared here this act apparently constitutes a violation of the neutrality of Switzerland.

BOKER & CO. FAILS:

Failure to Get Money to Meet Notes Causes Failure of Cutlery Firm.

Carl F. Hoker, doing business as Herman Boker & Co., dealers in steel, rutlery and hardware at No. 103 Duane street, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy to-day in the United States District Court. Schedules show assets in excess of $2,000,000 and liabilities of about $1,800,000. Among the secured creditors are Sternberger, Sinn & Co., $251,582; N. L. Carpenter & Co., $202,-062; E. F. Hutton, $121,000, and various

It is said Boker, during the times of easy money, put out a large amount of commercial paper, which is now coming due and cannot be met. M. F. Tompkins, counsel for Mr. Boker, said:

"The business has at all times been operated at a profit. Mr. Boker, however, had a large number of notes out standing, many of which were held here, and a considerable indebtedness abroad. The first of these notes will become due within the next few days While in ordinary times no difficulty would have been experienced in securing a renewal or additional funds to take care of them, the present financial conditions made this impos

One hundred and fifty tone of ab orbent cotton and 2,000 miles of guare bandages form part of the cargo of the Red Cross ship which is making ready for the passage across the At-lantic at the foot of Thirty-third street, Brooklyn. Miss Mabel Boardman, President of the American Red Cross, who is in charge of the work of fitting out the expedition and engaging the doctors and nurses, said this afternoon out the expedition and engaging the doctors and nurses, said this afternoon that she expected the vessel to leave on Monday.

Twenty-six surgeons and 100 nurses have been engaged. Thousands of women from all over the country have volunteered to go to Europe for hospital work. One woman wrote from Alaeka, offering to pay her own expenses. Only skilled and tried nurses have been chosen. New York has furnished 39, Cleveland 16, Rochester 11 and Baltimore 22.

Miss Boardman will ask Mayor Mitchel to appoint a citizens' committee of from 100 to 150 members to take charge of the work of raising funds.
